

Herm Island

Life from a fresh perspective

WELCOME TO PARADISE

Castaway to an island of clear waters and golden sands, wild cliff paths and tended gardens, cosy Inns and fine dining, pretty cottages and country-style hotel luxury and a history rich in smugglers' spoils and Prussian princes. In this little pocket of the Channel Islands you will discover a unique holiday destination with a landscape as diverse as its history.

WHERE TO STAY ON HERM

Choose from the stylish White House Hotel, quaint holiday cottages or camping under the stars. With its emphasis on peace and comfort, The White House Hotel is the perfect place to unwind in style. There are no televisions, no clocks on the walls and no telephones in the bedrooms so you can set your own pace and escape from the 21st century for a while.

One of the most authentic ways to experience life on Herm is to live in one of our fully equipped holiday cottages offering all of the comforts of home in a wonderful setting. Alternatively, sleeping under canvas is a wonderful way to enjoy the tranquillity and unspoilt beauty of Herm. Seagull Campsite sits on the top of the island with modern facilities and a dedicated warden.

EATING & DRINKING

For such a small island you are spoilt for choice with a wide range of eateries on offer. The White House, The Ship Inn Brasserie, Mermaid Tavern and the beach cafés all serve a fabulous range of food from à la carte feasts to the humble bacon sarnie. The popular Black Rock Grill, where your food is served cooking on volcanic rocks, the equally sociable hog roasts and the legendary Mermaid barbecues are all perfect, whether for two people or large parties.

Choose from a selection of hand picked wines when dining at The White House or try our own Herm Island Gold ale in the Mermaid after a long day on the beach. One thing you can always be assured of is a warm welcome and great hospitality.

THINGS TO DO

Whether you crave a few days walking, fishing with friends, a whistle-stop bird-watching tour or a yoga holiday, Herm is the place to make your vision a reality. From kayaking to clay pigeon shooting or just simply getting away from it all for a bit of R and R, Herm literally has something for everyone.

Visit our website for information on our holiday packages such as Bluebells in Bloom, Gourmet Weekend or Murder Mystery.

Whilst on the island, Herm's gift shops have a reputation for providing interesting items at great value for money. Our little shops offer a huge range of clothing brands as well as unique jewellery, pottery and curios. We also have a vast selection of toys, beach goods, souvenirs, toiletries, fishing gear and confectionery, phone cards and our very collectable Herm stamps. As well as Herm branded products, we also sell locally produced gifts like our fantastic Herm honey.

JANUARY & FEBRUARY 2012

During January and February we offer a limited daily service, (except on a Sunday in January) departing early morning and returning late afternoon. In addition an extra sailing is offered at midday on a Wednesday.

Winter can be a beautiful time to visit Herm, however The White House Hotel is closed for annual maintenance and the Mermaid Tavern (closed in January) is only open on certain days (normally Wednesday and Saturday). If you decide to visit in January be prepared for the weather as there is little shelter on the island and be sure to take food and drink with you.
